

I AM CHOSEN STUDY

Central thought: “I am chosen & God desires for me to choose Him!”

Object Illustration: Trust Fall – faith demonstrated

Items needed:

White board, chalkboard or poster paper with marker or chalk to draw "Bridge Diagram"; two chairs for demonstration; copies of review catcher and scissors if using as a review activity.

Point to Emphasize:

- God had chosen David as king because of David’s heart, NOT because of his appearance, what he did, or even his age.
- God not only had chosen David, but David had also chosen God
- God didn’t wait until David grew up to call him and use him
- God prepared David for his future even while he was a young boy

"I Am Chosen!" - Bible Lesson for Kids

Introductory Activity

“The Line Up” – Have students get into groups of 8 (number of Jesse’s sons) and line themselves up as quickly as they can from tallest to shortest. Give a heart with Samuel 16:7 written on it to each of the shortest. Ask one of them to read it out loud to the class.

The people of Israel had wanted a king other than God; so God gave them what they wanted – a tall, handsome King named Saul. Now this is King Saul of the Old Testament, not Saul of the New Testament that became Paul! King Saul however did not love God with all his heart; he had become proud and his heart became hard.

This time God had chosen a king based on what He thought was important...not how the man looked or acted, but based on the man’s heart. God surprised everyone and actually chose a young boy!

Let’s open up our Bibles to the Old Testament to a book called 1 Samuel.

[Bible tidbit: Show students how to use their table of contents to find a book of the Bible. Also tell them this book is found in the books of History (the history of Israel). This group of 7 books came after the first 5 books that were written by Moses. They can try to open their Bible to the middle and hopefully fall within or close to the book of Psalms and then turn back towards the front. Assure them that the more they use their Bibles, the more comfortable they will become in finding certain books, but it is A-OKAY to use the table of contents!]

Point 1 - God chose a boy and God chose you!

Find chapter 16:1 of 1 Samuel and have someone stand and read verse 1. Ask the class to repeat the last sentence of verse 1 – “I have chosen one of his sons to be king.” God had chosen David.

Finish reading 1 Samuel 16:2-8 aloud to the class.

David was the youngest of the sons...he was number 8!

[Have everyone that is the youngest in their family stand up. Ask if they ever feel left out of some things because they are the youngest.]

God chose the youngest. He chose a boy. Most scholars believe David was only around twelve years old at this time!

Say “God doesn’t look at what we look like or what we do or even our age...what does He look at?” (Hopefully they will answer, “OUR HEART!”)

Point 2 - David chose God...we can too!

There is a verse in the New Testament that talks about David’s heart:

Acts 13:22 “After removing Saul, He made David their king. God testified concerning him: 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after My own heart; he will do everything I want him to do.'”

David’s heart wanted to follow God’s heart. The Bible talks about faith. Faith is the action of believing. It’s not just a belief in our head, but a deep belief in our heart...a knowing and trusting.

Charles Blondin Story:

[Tell the following story of Charles Blondin in your own words:]

The amazing Charles Blondin story is that of the famous French tightrope walker crossing Niagara Falls.

It is a great story illustration of what true faith is.

Blondin's greatest fame came in June of 1859 when he attempted to become the first person to cross a tightrope stretched over a quarter of a mile across the mighty Niagara Falls. He walked across 160 feet above falls several times, each time with a different daring feat - once in a sack, on stilts, on a bicycle, in the dark, and once he even carried a stove and cooked an omelet! On one occasion though, he asked for the participation of a volunteer. A large crowd gathered and a buzz of excitement ran along both sides of the river bank. The crowd "Oooohed!" and "Aaaaahed!" as Blondin carefully walked across one dangerous step after another -- blindfolded and pushing a wheelbarrow. Upon reaching the other side, the crowd's applause was louder than the roar of the falls! Blondin suddenly stopped and addressed his audience: "Do you believe I can carry a person across in this wheelbarrow?" The crowd enthusiastically shouted, "Yes, yes, yes. You are the greatest tightrope walker in the world. You can do anything!" "Okay," said Blondin, "Get in the wheelbarrow....." The Blondin story goes that no one did!

(Later in August of 1859, his manager, Harry Colcord, did ride on Blondin's back across the Falls.)

Ask, "Who had faith? (Harry Colcord) Who had belief? (people in the crowd)

"Faith Fall" Demonstration:

Have a student ahead of time agree to do the following: have them come to the front and stand with their back facing you. Ask them if they trust you to catch them as they fall back. Have them say, "Yes." Ask the class if they think the person really trusts you...how do they know? (They don't for sure.) Next have the student fall back as you catch them. Now ask the class if they think the student trusts you...how do they know? (Because they saw they trusted you when they fell back and let you catch them.) That is faith. It is one thing to say we believe; it is another to act on that belief.

Chosen Bible Lesson continued:

Romans 10:9-10 says, "that if you confess with your mouth Jesus as Lord, and believe in your heart that God raised Him from the dead, you will be saved; or with the heart a person believes, resulting in righteousness, and with the mouth he confesses, resulting in salvation."

God has chosen each one of us. He created us and loves us. But something in us separates us from Him and His love...something called sin. Sin is anything against God; it's basically when we put ourselves in God's place and think and act like we know better than He does. It may be doing things we know we shouldn't do or it may be not doing something we know God wants us to do, but we don't want to. We choose what we want over what God says is right.

The Bible says in Romans 3:23 that we have ALL sinned. Think about it. Have you ever done anything that you know was wrong; something you did because YOU wanted to even though you knew it was wrong and would not please God? How about a lie? How about disobeying your mom or dad? How about being mean to someone else or talking bad about them or even “thinking” wrong thoughts?! Those may seem like little things, but sin is sin; it is against God, no matter how “big” or “small” we may think it is. Sin separates us from God because He is perfect. He is holy and righteous (He is ALWAYS right!).

The Bridge Illustration with demonst

Have one student (preferably smaller than yourself!) stand on a chair on one side of the room representing “us”; have another chair on the other side representing “God in Heaven”. Tell them that between the two is a huge chasm representing sin so the student cannot just walk across the floor to the other chair. At the same time draw a visual of this illustration on the board as follows:

Wow...sounds kind of hopeless on our own, doesn't it?

There is hope though!

We all probably know John 3:16 ...let's say it together.

It says God so loved the world! Who do you think the world is? Yes, us! God so loved each of us; in other words, He chose us even while we were doing wrong. (Romans 5:8) God chose to send His Son, Jesus, to die in our place because the Bible in Romans 6:23 says “the wages of sin is death”; there is a consequence to sin, a punishment. That's not only our body dying, but it also means separation from God in a place called Hell forever. It's separation from everything good, because God is good. It's separation from love, because God is love. Get the idea? The price for sin is NOT good; it is not fun!

Jesus came and paid for our sin when He died on the cross. It goes on to say, “but the free gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.”

Finish the bridge illustration by drawing a cross between and label it “Jesus”:

Also...walk over to the student on the chair and allow him/her to get on your back and carry them over to the other chair.

Jesus said in John 10:10, “I am the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No man comes to the Father except by Me.” Jesus died and took our punishment for sin; He is the only One Who can carry us to God the Father in Heaven.

God has chosen to make a way for us to be forgiven so that we can have eternal life with Him in a place called Heaven. It is not automatic though. He gives us a choice.

Have everyone that:

- Plays a sport stand up. Ask “How can God use you right now on your sports team to be “Incredible” for Him?”

ex: Be an example in Christ-like sportsmanship. Pray for my teammates.

- Plays a musical instrument or can sing stand up. “How can God...?”

ex: Play or sing at a nursing home or in worship at church.

- Takes care of a pet. “How can God...?”

ex: In taking care of my pet, God can teach me to also be gentle with others; learn to be responsible; care for others; take care of His creations...

- Can pick up trash or help clean up. “How can God...?”

ex: Go to our local park or school playground and pick up trash.

God has given each of us unique abilities that can be used to be incredible for Him!

Remember the Bible story about David fighting Goliath (the guy who was over 9 feet tall!) That was pretty INCREDIBLE, and David was only a young teenager, probably about 15 years old! God can use us right now...whatever age we are!

David was INCREDIBLE because of what God did in him. We can be too! Having a heart for God is an incredible thing!
